

11TH ANNUAL NATIVE AMERICAN CULTURAL FESTIVAL

WE DANCE AND SING BECAUSE WE CAN...
ECHOES OF OUR PEOPLE!

Willie Lowry

Ulali

Tony Locha Clark

Saturday • November 6, 2004
11:00 am - 3:00 pm
Greensboro Cultural Center at Festival Park

(200 N. Davie St. • Greensboro, NC)
Open To The Public - Admission Free!
Free Parking - Church St. Deck

Special Performances

Appearing in two concert performances.....

WILLIE LOWRY, Lumbee Tribe from Robeson County, North Carolina
Nationally-Known Musician, Composer and Music Director

ULALI, First Nation Women's A capella Trio
Featuring Pure Fe (Tuscarora), Soni (Mayan/Apache/Yaqui) and Jennifer (Tuscarora)

Film Showing: In The Light of Reverence
Director's Talk with Malinda Maynor of the Lumbee Tribe

Other Features...

Tony Locha Clark, Master of Ceremonies, Lumbee Tribe
Traditional Tobacco Presentation by Lawrence Shorty, Navajo Tribe
Traditional Pottery Making by Senora Lynch, Haliwa-Saponi Tribe
Traditional Indian Food by Mills on Wheels (Hollister, NC)
Traditional Indian Arts and Crafts for Sale by Traders
Traditional Storytelling by Barbara Locklear, Lumbee Tribe
Guilford Native American Art Gallery and Gift Shop
Children's Art Activities by ARTQUEST
Special Honorings and Give-aways

Festival Information

(336) 273-6605 or 373-2044

